Introduction /Background / Purpose

To describe Leddy Library's "Acceptable Use Policy".

Application / Scope of Policy

Procedures:

In keeping with the University of Windsor's policy on the acceptable use of computing resources on campus as articulated in the Acceptable Use Policy issued through Information Technology Services, the use of computing resources to display the following is deemed unacceptable:

Computer information that portrays men, women or children or their body parts in a pornographic or derogatory manner.

Further, in keeping with the Leddy Library's Library Behaviour Code:

Library users are required to show consideration for the rights of others and should behave in a manner which does not inconvenience, offend, or limit the rights of other users to have access to library materials, services or facilities.

Leddy Library staff will respond swiftly and directly upon receipt of a complaint regarding patron use of computing resources for the purposes outlined above.
